

Loi Si Xian, 17, Singapore

Si Xian has been playing the violin since 4 years old and is enrolled in the Gifted Young Violinists Course at Nanyang Academy of Fine Arts. At thirteen, she attained her Diploma in Violin Performance from ABRSM and the following year, her Licentiate with distinction from Trinity College London. An avid performer, Si Xian has performed annually at public concerts, as well as with her school's Chamber Ensemble. Si Xian has also participated in various competitions and has achieved the First Prize at the American Protege Music Talent Competition 2016, Symphony 92.4fm Young Talents Project Viewers' Choice Award 2016, Gold at the Singapore Performers' Festival 2016 and Silver at the Singapore Raffles International Music Festival 2015.