

Feng Zhixian

Zhixian began his musical journey at age 5 with the violin, after watching the Pixel cartoon, "One Man Band". He went under the tutelage of Mr Ng Eng Thong and had the opportunity to participate in several community concerts. In 2016, he went under the baton of Mr Lin Ah Leck, veteran composer and conductor of the Braddell Heights Chinese Orchestra. As one who never rests on his laurels, he learnt to play the cello in 2017 under Mr Zhang Tong and have since participated in several concerts with the Kids' Philharmonic Orchestra as a cellist.

Besides music, Zhixian loves reading and taking care of his stick insects and spiders. He aspires to set up a Live Insect Museum when he grows up

Feng Zhiming

As one who enjoys learning new musical instruments, Zhiming started playing the violin at age 5 and went on to learn to play the piano 2 years later. Together with his brother, he participated in community concerts and had also performed with the Braddell Heights Chinese Orchestra. As he enjoys playing with other musicians, he joined the Kids' Philharmonic Orchestra in 2017, learning to play the cello under Mr Zhang Tong.

Other than practicing on his instruments, Zhiming spends his time constructing new Lego objects. He hopes to be able to create a Lego city of Singapore in future.

Aidan Yeong

Aidan Yeong started his musical journey with the piano and violin, but it was only after getting to know the Cello at the age of 9, through participating in group lessons in Kids' Philharmonic Orchestra, that he had truly found his life passion. Aidan had shown a keen interest in the Cello and is extremely fascinated with the instrument. He started formal education in Cello under Teacher Zhang Tong, upon his own request.

Aidan plays with the Kids' Philharmonic Orchestra, and being an active 10-year old, enjoys badminton, football and swimming. He looks forward to the weekly Cello Quartet practices with his good friends in fourté, and hopes they will be able to play in the Carnegie Hall together one day.

Cadee Yeo

At age 6, Cadee was captivated by the cello when she heard the Cello Wars played by Steve Sharp of the Piano Guys. She fell in love with the "voice" of the cello so much that she decided to learn how to play the instrument. She has been playing the cello for the past 4 years and is currently a member of Henry Park Primary School string ensemble and the Junior Orchestra at kids'philharmonic@singapore.

Cadee also plays the piano and enjoys painting, reading and mobile games. She aims to continually hone her cello skills and have the opportunity to join the Singapore National Youth Orchestra in the future.
