

Audrey started taking vocal lessons at the end of 2015. After years of self-training, the formal lessons improved her singing techniques and gave her confidence for public performances.

Apart from school music recitals, she also auditioned and was one of the performers in two local musical productions in 2017, where she performed "Don't Rain On My Parade" for Musical Mania and played one of the three dragons performed "Forever" in Shrek the Musical.

She also joined a local choir called the Serunai Singers in 2017, and they held a concert in March 2018 performing Oscar-winning songs. Audrey performed "This is Me" for her solo, which is soundtrack from the movie, The Greatest Showman.

This is her first time participating in the Singapore Performers' Festival and Chamber Music Competition. She hopes to showcase her talents and get professional advice for improvements as well as opportunities to pursue singing.
