

PERFORMER'S BIO

Kendrick Teo has been a student of the School of the Arts Singapore (SOTA) since 2013, where he specialises in music. Majoring in piano under the tutelage of Dr. Christina Tan, he participated in the 2014 and 2016 editions of SMTA's Singapore Performance Festival, in which he won silver awards. He completed his ABRSM Grade 8 piano studies in 2013 and was subsequently awarded the ATCL diploma by Trinity College London in 2016.

He has also participated in several showcases by SOTA, such as the "Potpurri" concert in 2015, and in the same year performed in 2 masterclasses, one of which was under Professor May Phang of the DePauw University School of Music.

In addition, Kendrick has an aptitude for music theory and composition, having been given the Arts Module Award for Music Theory and Analysis by his school in the year 2014. He will be making his public debut in composition in end-July 2018 in the "Process V" concert organised by SOTA.
