

Nathanelle Laura Tan, 12, has been playing the violin since she was six. Under the tutelage of Ms Cindy Yan, she has participated in local and international competitions and public performances, winning prizes in solo, ensemble and chamber orchestra competitions, such as the American Protégé International Competition, Singapore Raffles International Competition and Cheer Taiwan International Music Competition. She currently plays in the Singapore National Youth Orchestra.