

Personal Profile : Lira Masuda

B.O.D. May 25, 2009

Lira Masuda is currently 9 years old and lives in Singapore. She started playing the violin when she was 4 years old and living in Houston, TX. She first started by imitating her older sister and tried to replicate the same sounds. Her perseverance and attachment to her violin and music has enabled her to continue learning till now.

Her current teacher is Mr. Ang Chek Meng.

When she was 5 years old, she was chosen as a Houston Young Artist in 2014 and performed Dancla Air Varie at Rice University's Stude Hall. During her 3 years in Singapore, she has participated in the Raffles International Music Festival Competition and has been awarded Silver in the Solo Junior A category.