

Aimi Fujii, 10 years old, was born in Singapore to Taiwanese and Japanese parents. She scored high Distinctions in the ABRSM Grades 1–4 piano practical and music theory exams. In March 2018, Aimi won the 5th Prize in Cheers Taiwan International Music Competition in the 4th grader piano category. She is currently learning piano under the tutelage of Ms Karen Wong, head of the keyboard studies at Forte Musicademy.

Aimi has perfect pitch, enjoys classical music, and is also a skilled ballet dancer. She was selected to be in the Youth Group under the supervision of the Singapore Ballet Academy principal, Mr Han Kee-Juan. She has scored Distinctions for all Royal Academy of Dance (Primary to Grade 3) ballet exams.

Aimi also performs for St Hilda's Church on family service days, as a piano accompanist to her younger sisters Anmi - Violin and Yumi - Voice.

