

Hello!

My name is Sue-Ann. I am 11 years old but a tiny one. I am a Primary 5 student at Methodist Girls' School. I love bunnies and delight in monkeying around.

When I was planning the programme, I decided to have a variety of songs with different languages and from different time periods so that I could engage and entertain my audience.

I included a fun song that had a certain level of difficulty to please my teacher. It turned out to be a fun experience for me.

Singing is my passion. I sing all day and night. To give myself more exposure, I sing in the school's choir, the Cherubim Choir in church, The Singapore Symphony Children's Choir as well as this festival. I would especially like to give credit to my mother for being my accompanist and "chauffeur".

The songs I will be singing are: Heidenrösli by Franz Schubert, Ruggi adose odorose by Alessandro Scarlatti, Nightingale Sang in Berkeley Square by Manning Sherwin and lastly, 'Orrible Little Blue-Eyes by Betty Roe.

I hope you will enjoy my selection.
