

Glory Roslily

Glory Roslily's passion for music certainly shines on her violin.

The young violinist already has several concert ensembles under her belt. At the age of 12, Glory has played for Brunei Young Musicians Concerts (BYMC) Ensemble and even performed duo with pianist.

Among her achievements, Glory won the Gold Award for young violin category in the 4th Hong Kong International Music Festival 2017. She was also a finalist for Brunei's "The Spotlight" talent-based competition in the same year.

Glory has been awarded with Trinity College London Distinction for Grade 7 Violin and Merit for Grade 5 Piano.
