
Andrei Slobodyanyuk Bio

Andrei started study violin when he was three and a half years old. He played violin concerto by O. Rieding with orchestra when he was 5 y.o. Andrei is a laureate and prize winner of many international music competitions. With other prize winners he took part in concerts in London (Royal Albert Hall) 2016, 2017, Salzburg (Mozarteum Hall) 2016, 2017, People House in Celje (Slovenia) 2017, Vienna 2016 and Singapore. Andrei won 3rd prize in the 1st Oscar Rieding Competition in Slovenia 2017, He took gold medal in AADGT competition 2017, Grand Prize Virtuoso, Young Exceptional Talent Special Prize 2017, Asia Art Festival, Golden award 2017.

A musical piece was dedicated to Andrei and he performed it with composer on stage.

Andrei's violin teacher is his mother, Natalia Kurganova.

Andrei has big repertoire, more than 300 pieces. He likes to improvise.

Andrei is studying piano as well.