

Asher Seow, 9

Asher was first introduced to Music Performance when he was 4. At the time, he was living in New Jersey (USA) and was encouraged to perform occasionally in the residential community. He started formal piano lessons at age 6 when he returned to Singapore and has since performed in several recitals (ABRSM High Scorer's Concert, Dawn and Friends, Music Suite Annual Concert) and Street Performances (pianoSG).

He placed 3rd in the Future Stars International Competition (Category: Up to 10 years old). He also performed as a trio with 2 vocalists in ChildAid Charity Concert in Singapore to an audience of 1,325 at the Resorts World Theatre raising more than $2.1 million for under-privileged kids.

He is currently learning under Dr Kim Bo-Kyung, and Dr Nicholas Ong (The first Malaysian to receive a Doctorate in Piano Performance at Juilliard)
