

Biograpghy

Yuki Chew, a Diploma student at Nanyang Academic of Fine Arts (NAFA) in Singapore, is also a member of The Singapore Youth Sinfonia Orchestra, the junior orchestra of the Singapore National Youth Orchestra.

Yuki has been performing in competitions from a young age, winning numerous prizes. She began the international competition circuit around age 10, at the American Protégé International Competition of Romantic Music 2015 and emerged as a 1st Place Winner for the Junior Category (Age 10 to 13) and has the privilege to perform at the Carnegie Hall. She went on to perform and won prizes in other international competitions, including Gold Award (Ensemble) at 2nd Raffles Music Festival 2015 in Singapore; third prize (Solo) and First prize (Quartet) at 2016 Tainan International Music Competition in Taiwan; Silver Award (Solo) at 6th Singapore Performers' Festival 2016 in Singapore; Silver Award (Solo) at 4th Raffles Music Festival 2017 in Singapore; Gold Award (Solo) in the Singapore Performing Arts Festival in Singapore; and Gold Award (Solo) in Brilliant Talent Discovery Awards 2018.

Yuki has given many public performances (both locally and overseas) at Weddings, Church, Government functions and her Conservatory and is happy performing any time she can. In her spare time, she enjoys her piano and reading.