

e-Program Note:       PATRICK HOLEWA

Bartok: For Children, Vol. 1, No. 10, Children's Dance

When I play music, it comes to me in colors. In "Children's Dance", I hear questions asked in light green, with answers in dark blue.

Spindler: Sonatina, Op. 157, No. 1 (Allegro and Tarantella)

The first movement, Allegro, is definitely all yellow. In the Tarantella movement, the left hand is green, and the right hand is reddish-brown. Maybe that's a spider dancing across the grass?
