

Jardins sous la pluie

Jardins sous la pluie is a composition for solo piano by Claude Debussy . It was the 3rd movement of Estampes. It was finished in 1903. It describes a garden in the Normandy town of Orbec during an violent rainstorm. Throughout this pieces , it will be heard sounds of wind blowing, thunderstorm raging and raindrops dropping. Chromatic, whole tone , major and minor scales are used in this piece.