

Just before the age of three, Stasia had started learning violin from Miss Yap Shu Mei's Baby Violin Course at the Mendeville Conseratory of Music and had since continue to learn from Prof. Yin Ke at the "School of Young Talents" currently under the auspices of Nanyang Academy of Fine Arts (NAFA), Singapore.

Stasia passionately enjoys performing and sharing her music. She had serval public performance experiences at the NAFA Lee Foundation Theatre, YST Conservatory Concert Hall and The Republic Cutural Centre Theatre as a soloist and in a violin ensemble.

Apart from performing in public concerts, Stasia has also participated in masterclasseses and music festivals such as the New Virtuosi Queenswoods Mastercourse held in U.K, and also Singapore International String Conference.

7 years old - Achievements

1. 2018 Singapore International String Festival
 - Violin Solo - Silver Award (Juvenile Group A)