'Se' (Cinema Paradiso Love Theme)

The song was written by Ennio and Andrea Morricone, Italian composers, and is the love theme from the movie Cinema Paradiso. The song tells about love and happiness and one's longingness to show it. This is the melody that plays in the romantic scenes with Toto (Salvatore) and Elena. The melody is so hauntingly beautiful, poignant, romantic, heartwarming and heartbreaking all at the same time. It's one of those evocative music that soothes the soul and warms the heart.

Nessun Dorma

"Nessun Dorma" is an aria composed by one of the greatest composers of Italian opera, Giacomo Puccini. It is most famously included in his score and an aria for the final act of the opera, "Turandot". "Nessun Dorma" means, "None shall sleep". This famous aria is sung by Puccini's most unambiguously 'heroic' character, Calaf. The melody of this song conveys a glorious cry and impressively uplifting.
