Everlasting

Everlasting is a song by Chris Miller and Nathan Tysen. It was featured in the 2nd act of "Tuck Everlasting", a musical based upon the American children's novel Tuck Everlasting by Natalie Babbitt.

The song Everlasting is all about the protagonist character Winnie Foster's decision-making and it could fire up someone's imagination that could lead into introspection about life's purpose. The tune of the song is catchy and is easy to remember. The beautiful melody supports the good rhythm and natural pulse of the contemplative lyrics, making each line seems very easy to deliver.

Lascia Ch'io Pianga

"Lascia Ch'io Pianga is a soprano aria song composed by baroque composer George Frideric Handel. It is most famously included in his score for the opera, "Rinaldo". "Lascia Ch'io Pianga" means, "Let me weep" and was the first song in the Act 2 by the character, Almirena, who was held captive by Argante, King of Jerusalem. She laments her imprisonment and the loss her happiness.
