

Ria Chhabra, 9, resides in Singapore.

Ria is a musical child who thoroughly enjoys her vocal, piano and violin studies. She has performed at Child Aid 2016 held at Resorts World Sentosa in November 2016 and has performed at The Royal Albert Hall and Carnegie Hall several times throughout 2015/2016 both as a performer and as an accompanist. She has completed her Grade 8 LCM piano examination with distinction and her Grade 5 musical theatre and classical singing examinations with distinction in 2016.

Ria has received several first prizes for her classical and musical theatre vocals and piano performances including from the American Protégé Music Talent Competition (2015), Enkor International Music Competition (2016/2017), Emuse International Music Competition 2016/2017), Grand Prize Virtuoso (Salzburg & London), Great Composers Competition (2016/2017) and Salut International Music Competition (Italy, 2016).

Ria has been awarded the following first prizes:

1. First Prize - Classical Vocal
Emuse International Music Competition,
Greece (April 2016)
2. First Prize - Piano (Selected Winner)
Grand Prize Virtuoso Competition
Salzburg (July 2016)
3. First Prize - Piano
Great Composers Competition Series
Music of the 20th Century (May 2016)
4. First Prize - Vocal
Great Composers Competition Series
Music of the 20th Century (May 2016)
5. First Prize - Piano
Great Composers Competition Series
Music of the 17th Century (May 2016)
6. First Prize - Piano
Salut International Music Competition
Fiuggi, Italy (July 2016)
7. First Prize - Musical Theatre
Salut International Music Competition
Fiuggi, Italy (July 2016)
8. First Prize - Piano
Grand Prize Virtuoso Competition
London, Royal Albert Hall (Dec 2016)

9. First Prize – Piano
Great Composers Competition Series
Best Handel Performance (February 2017)

10. First Prize – Piano
Emuse International Music Competition,
Greece (April 2017).